TO THE OLD AND YOUNG.
HO! YE RED HEADS AND GREY!
PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY.

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.
Colors the Hair, and will not the Skin

THIS Dye is in form of a powder, which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first time turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black, with a positive assurance that the powder, if applied to the skin, will not color it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, DR. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

DR. MCNAIR'S ACOUSTIC OIL.

THOSE DEAF FROM INFANCY often receive in a most miraculous manner their hearing when they least expect it by some trifling accident or event, which shows them how easily they might have much sooner had their hearing, and saved themselves and their friends the pain of conversing in a loud tone, without pleasure, or of being neglected and shunned to avoid that distress which is felt mutually by the deaf person and his hearers. How sacred a duty, therefore, it is that we use all necessary means to remove such an affliction, and enjoy the social qualities implanted in our nature! MISCELLANEOUS.

On the Study of the Law.
Every gentleman ought to know a little of law, says Coke, and perhaps—say we—the less the better. Servius Sulpicius, a patrician, called on Mutius Scaevola, the Roman Pollux (not one of the firm of Castor and Pollux), for a legal opinion, when Mutius Scaevola thoroughly flabbergasted Servius Sulpicius with a flood of technicalities, which the latter could not understand. Upon this Mutius Scaevola blackguarded his client for his ignorance, when Sulpicius, in a fit of pique, went home and studied the law with such effect, that he wrote one hundred and four score volumes of law books before he died, which task was, for what we know, the death of him. We should be sorry, on the strength of this little anecdote, to recommend our nobility to go home and write law books; but we advise them to peruse the Comic Blackstone, which would have done Servius Sulpicius a great deal of good to have studied.

The clergy and the Druidical priests were, in former times, great lawyers; and the work clerics has been corrupted into clerk, so that the seedy gentlemen who carry the wigs and gowns down to court for the barristers, are descended from the Druids.

A contest sprung up between the nobles and clergy. The former supporting the common law, and the other the civil. Somebody having picked up a copy of the pandects of Justinian at a bookstall in Amalfi, introduced them to England, but King Stephen would not allow them to be studied. Roger Vacarius, however, set up an evening academy for adults, where he advertised to teach the pandects on moderate terms; but the lady would not come to his school at any price. One thing that contributed to save the common law from falling into disuse, was the fixing of the Court of Common Pleas, which had formerly been moveable, following the person of the King, like Algar's booth or Richardson's show, with all the paraphernalia of a Court of Justice. There is no doubt that the Common Pleas had a van to carry the barristers' bench, the judge's easy chair, and the rostrum for the witnesses, from place to place; but when it became fixed, it made it worth the while of respectable people to study the law, which was not the case when the legal profession was nothing but a strolling company.

To those who take up the study of the law for the mere fun of the thing, we say with Sir John Fortescue, "It will not," &c. down to "other improvements."

ON THE NATURE OF LAWS IN GENERAL.
The term law, in its general sense, signifies a rule of human action, whether animate or inanimate, rational or irrational; and perhaps there is nothing more inhuman or irrational than an action at law. We talk of the law of motion, as when one man speaks towards another and knocks him down; or the law of gravitation, in obedience to which the person struck falls to the earth.

If we descend from animal to vegetable life, we shall find the latter acting in conformity with laws of its own. The ordinary cabbage, from its first entering an appearance on the bed to its being finally taken in execution and thrust into the pot for boiling, is governed by the common law of nature.

Man, as we are all aware, is a creature endowed with reason and free will; but when he goes to law as plaintiff, his reason seems to have deserted him; while, if he stands in the position of defendant, it is generally against his free will; and thus, that "noblest of animals," Man, is in a very ignominious predicament.

Justinian has reduced the principles of law to three:—1st, that we should live honestly; secondly, that we should hurt nobody; and, thirdly, that we should give every one his due. These principles have, however, been for some time obsolete in ordinary legal practice. It is to be considered that justice and human felicity were intimately connected, but the partnership seems to have been long ago dissolved; though we cannot say at what particular period. That man should pursue his own true and substantial happiness, is said to be the foundation of ethics, or natural law; but if one plunges into artificial law with the view of pursuing his own true and substantial happiness, he will find himself greatly mistaken.

It is said that no human laws are of any validity if they are contrary to the law of nature; but we do not mean to deny the validity of the Poor Law, and some others we could mention. The law of nature contributes to the general happiness of men; but it is in the nature of law to contribute only to the happiness of the attorney.

Natural law is much easier of comprehension than human law; for conscience, telling him what is right and what is wrong. The judgments of that court of conscience are infallible, and its decrees are never silent; for it is without an usher—which in this case means a usher—to preserve silence.

The law of nations is a peculiar kind of law, and it is generally settled by recourse to powder and shot, so that the law of nations is in the long run much the same thing as the common law.

But we now come to the municipal or civil law, which is the subject of the present chapter, though we have not yet said a word regarding it. Municipal law is defined to be "a rule of civil conduct, prescribed by the supreme power in a state, commanding what is right, and prohibiting what is wrong." Such was the definition of Puffendorf—whose name is probably a corruption of Puffing off, for he puffs off the law most outrageously whenever he can find an opportunity of doing so.

It is called a "rule" to distinguish it from an agreement, for a rule must be complied with "willy nilly," according to Bacon, or "willy ye nil ye," according to Coke.

It is a rule of "civil conduct," because the municipal law insists on civil conduct, particularly from omnibuses cabs and cabmen.

It is "prescribed" because one is bound to take it, and a very disagreeable pill it is sometimes to swallow. It is one of the beautiful provisions of the English law, that not knowing it forms no excuse for not obeying it. It is an ingenious fiction of British policy that every person in the kingdom purchases every act of Parliament, and carefully reads it through; therefore, there can be no possible excuse for being ignorant of the laws that are made every session.

It is reported of Caligula that he caused the laws of Rome to be written in small characters, and stuck up so high that the citizens could not read them, though perhaps the higher classes, who, it is presumed, could afford to purchase opera glasses, were enabled to make themselves acquainted with the edicts.

Municipal law is a rule prescribed by the "supreme power in the state," and this brings us to the question of the origin of government.—Some writers think that society, in its original state, chose the tallest man amongst them as king. If this had been the case, Carus Wilson might have disputed the English throne with Mr. Charles Freeman, the American giant.—Perhaps the expression in the national anthem "Long to reign over us," has given rise to this very extraordinary theory.

There are three forms of government—a democracy, where the mass take such liberties in the lump, that there is no liberty left for allotment among private individuals; an aristocracy, which we need not particularly describe; or a monarchy, where one individual is absolute within a certain space, like the square-keeper of a square, which is fortunately the only specimen of pure despotism that this free country possesses.

Cicero thought a mixture of these three the best; but Tacitus, who had better have been on this occasion Tacitus indeed—and held his tongue—declared the idea to be a visionary whim for he seems to have imagined that the oil of aristocracy, and the vinegar of democracy, never could have coalesced. Tacitus, however, was out, and, fortunately for us, the British constitution presents the mixture in its complete form, and we trust will long continue what it is—"a real blessing to mothers," fathers, daughters, sons, and wives of Great Britain.

The House of Commons embodies the principle of goodness and purity, as a reference to the various election compromises and bribery cases will manifest. The House of Lords embraces the grand element of wisdom, as the speeches of Earl Coventry and other noblemen will at once prove, while the monarchy is the type of strength, as the fact of the throne being filled by a young woman of 25 abundantly testifies. Here, then, in the British constitution is concentrated the cream of everything that is good, wise, and powerful. Wo to the revolutionary hand that shall attempt to skim it!

We now come to analyse a law. In the first place, it is declaratory; in the second, it is directory; in the third, it is remedial; and in the fourth, it is vindictory. The declaratory says so and so is wrong, and the directory immediately says it shall not be done, but it sometimes contrives to say so in such very civil and mysterious terms as to leave people in doubt whether they may do a thing or may not, until they find all of a sudden they are put in possession of its true meaning, and punished for not having been able to understand it.

It is remedial, for it gives a remedy. Thus, if you are deprived of your right, you have the remedy of a law suit, which is a great luxury no doubt, though rather an expensive one.

It is also vindictory, for it attaches a penalty, and such is the majesty of law, that, whether right or wrong, he is sure to have to bear a portion of the penalty who presumes in any way to meddle with it.

Offences are either mala in se or mala prohibita; but the mala prohibita differ very materially from the mala in se, of which many instances could be given. Piracy is decidedly a mala in se (i), but a mala prohibita is that which is only made criminal by the law. For example, it was attempted to make baking on Sunday a mala prohibita, so that a good dinner would in fact have been a bonum prohibita, if the anti-baking-on-Sunday party had succeeded.

The rules for interpreting English law are extremely arbitrary. Words are to be taken in their popular sense without regard to grammar, which is thought to have been always beneath the wisdom of Parliament. Grattius thought that the penalty on crime was a sort of tax on Sin, which might be defined without regard to Sin-tax. Puffendorf tells us that the law forbidding a layman to lay hands on the priest, (observe the pun, "a layman to lay hands,") applied also to those who hurt a priest with a weapon, or, in other words, "lay into him."

If words are still dubious after the lawyers are called in (and they have a knack of making matters more dubious than before), it is usual to refer to the context; but this is, in many cases, only to get out of the frying pan into the fire.

Next, as to the subject-matter. The words are always supposed—though it requires a tolerable latitude in the way of supposition—to have reference to the subject-matter. Thus, a law of Edward III. forbids ecclesiastical persons to purchase prorations at Rome, which would seem to interdict clergymen from buying anything to eat within the holy city. It seems, however, that this only has reference to the purchase of "bills," from the Pope; though it is not unlawful to procure portions of "Bills" such as rumpsteaks or sirloins of beef, from the papal butchers.

Next, as to the effect and consequence of words, it is literally understood. "It has been held," says Puffendorf, "after a long debate, that when the words amount to utter nonsense, they are not to be in all cases strictly followed. Thus the Holognian law enacting that punishment should be inflicted on any one who drew blood in the streets, was at last held (after several medical men had been put to death) not to extend to surgeons who should bleed a man taken in the streets with a fainting fit. But lastly, the reason and spirit of the law must be looked at (when there happens to be any). The following case, put by Cicero, is so nice, that we throw it into meter;

A law there was, that in the water-trip Those who should in a storm forsake a ship
All property should in the vessel lose.
It happen'd in a tempest all on board
Excepting one, who was by sickness floor'd,
To leave the ship their utmost power did use
The invalid, who could not get away,
Was with the wreck of course compell'd to stay,
And with it he was into harbor wash'd
The benefit of law he then did claim,
But when to suit the point the lawyers came,
His claim with great propriety was quash'd.

The difficulty of saying what is the meaning of law led to the establishment of a perfectly distinct branch of jurisprudence, called equity. According to Grattius, equity, non exacle definit, sed arbitrio boni viri permittit. Among other boni viri, to whose arbitrium equity has left matters, are Lords Thurlow and Eldon: the latter of whom was so exceedingly modest as to his judgments that he postponed them as long as he himself, and even when he gave them, such was a delicacy that it was often quite impossible to understand and abide by them. It has, however, been said that law without equity is better than equity without law; and therefore, though in law there is very often no equity, never theless, there is no equity that has not sufficient law to make its name of equity a pleasant fiction.—[Punch

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.
JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.
MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1843.
FOR PRESIDENT,
HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.
SEE FIRST PAGE.
REMOVAL.
The Whig and Courier Office has been removed to the spacious room in the second story of the Kenduskeag Market.

The Message.
The message of the President very appropriately commenced by a proper acknowledgment of our dependence upon God for his watchful care over us as a nation. But singularly closes with a personal glorification of what he would have understood to be his achievements. That man is to be pitied who feels compelled to speak his own praise, for want of trumpeters.
The President seems prepared to make war upon Mexico, for not having conquered Texas, or given up the effort before now. But all this is understood as being an indirect, and rather lame hint; that notice should be taken of Texas, to admit her into our Union. Affairs with foreign nations are represented as satisfactory. The Exchequer is again introduced, with certain modifications suggested by the Secretary of the Treasury, whose report we have not yet seen. The recommendation of the increase of the navy and army, we should suppose would not be justified by the present condition of the finances of the Government, and are not demanded by the exigencies of the times. There is a suggestion for the income of the Revenue, and a hint as to the alterations of the Tariff, but there is no mode pointed out for an income of Revenue—no clear, straightforward, statesmanlike views regarding the great Governmental matter of Revenue, but the whole is thrown off upon Congress as a bone which they may pick or not, as they like.
On the whole, the message is not half so bad as we feared, nor half as good as we should like to have seen.

Sad Events.
Our correspondent at Ellsworth, in a letter for which we have not room this morning, gives an account of several sad events in that town.
A child of Mr. John Abrahams, was scalded to death a few days since, by a pot of hot coffee being upset upon it.
On Friday, an interesting little girl, three years of age, only child of George W. Brown, Esq., was burnt to death. Early in the morning the father opened the air tight stove, and stepped out to get some wood, when the little girl approached the stove, and her cotton night gown was drawn into the stove and instantly in a flame and the child so much burnt that she died in eight hours.

A young man, the eldest son of a poor widow, of commanding talents and religious professions, employed in a store at Ellsworth, has been detected in robbing his employer's store of goods and money to a considerable amount.
A small steamer, at present called the Greenfield, has arrived at Baltimore from Hartford, (Ct.) via New York, and from Philadelphia through the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal. She is constructed with a paddle wheel under her stern which moves her at the rate of 10 miles an hour, and is bound to Newburn, (N. C.) designed to ply on the Neuse river as high up as Wayne, and on her arrival at Newburn will assume the name of Wayne, instead of the present. She will proceed from thence to Norfolk and through the Dismal Swamp Canal.

On the 8th ultimo, Gen Houston made a long position-defining speech in Galveston. He blows to the winds the undue intervention of England with the internal policy or institutions of the country, and enters into a long and able defence of his governmental policy. He says—"I have this day received new evidences of assistance from France, England and the United States."
We should infer, from his remarks, that the subject of negro emancipation had been broached by England, but not in an authoritative or dictatorial manner.

A deputation from the Sacs and Foxes left Iowa City on the 6th of November, on their way to Washington to hold a "talk" with the President. Much dissatisfaction prevailed among the Indians with the manner in which the late annuity was paid, and much in-a-cum-e-out or bad news, a chief of the Poweshieks band, has accompanied the party for the purpose of stating their grievances at head quarters.
The Providence County Bank, at Lime Rock, Smithfield, R. I. was entered by means of false keys on Monday night, and robbed of $7,445 in bills of the Bank, and $1,108 in gold. One thousand dollars reward is offered for the detection and conviction of the robber or robbers, and the recovery of the money. A proportionate part of said reward will be paid for any portion of the money.

The Troy Whig says that J. V. Ford of that city, after several years labor, has perfected a machine for type setting and type distributing. The machine is operated by means of keys moved like the keys of a piano forte. The movement of each key depositing the required letter in its proper place. It will set 188 types in a minute.
Several attempts to construct a machine like this, have proved unsuccessful, succeeding better in theory than in practice. Of course we do not mean to express an opinion of the merits of Mr. Ford's machine.
Our eastern correspondents have our thanks.

The Enquirer is a little late with its Thanksgiving, as on Saturday it recommended its readers to get a turkey ready, when probably most of them were getting rid of their turkeys. We hope next year that some one will send the Enquirer a turkey. Our subscribers sent us five last week, and we gave them credit on our books. We have a special regard for those good people that are mindful of our toils and feel disposed to do us justice by prompt payment.
The Boston Mail states that the dry goods store of Mr. William Bird, in Boston, was broken into on Friday night, and a large amount of goods made ready for removal—but the robbers probably becoming alarmed escaped without their booty.

Thorn, the murderer, the Portland Argus says, does not behave very well; he has been punished twice for disobedience: his hope is large, and he expects to be pardoned at the end of the year.

The Boston Times inserts all the puffs of the President's message it can find. It appears thankful for the smallest favors.

No N. York papers by the last mail, the boats probably being detained by the snow storm.

On Thursday last the building in Boston, formerly the Tremont Theatre, was dedicated to the worship of God.

There was a moderate snow storm on Thursday last—another on Saturday and the prospect is, that we shall have pretty good sleighing to-day.

On Thursday, the 1st inst., Anthony Potter was drowned at Concord, N. H.

Our thanks are due to Hon. Hannibal Hamlin for Congressional documents.

On Friday morning there was about a foot depth of snow, on an average, in Boston.

There is abundance of snow in Massachusetts.

So the amendment was rejected.
For the Right of Petition, forty-seven Whigs, forty-four Locos; Against it, fifteen (Southern) Whigs, eighty Locos. So the Right of Petition goes to the wall, as usual. Messrs. Ficklin, Hoge, McCauslen, Norris, Pratt, Reding, Wilkins, and several others whose votes thus sustained the Gag, were virtually supported by the Abolitionists, and several of them would have been defeated by men who would have defeated this measure if the Abolitionists had so chosen.

Foreign Items.
The Duke and Duchess de Nemours are on a friendly visit to Queen Victoria. These morning calls are getting quite fashionable among the royalty.
The extensive building in Dublin known as the Linen Hall, has been purchased by the government, to be used as barracks for the troops.

It is stated to be the intention of the government to put down all the repeal bands in Ireland, cost what it may; and to institute a rigid surveillance over every other society, whether instituted under the name of temperance, religion, or otherwise.
The "beacon fires," as they are called, in Ireland, continue to give some alarm. On one night these fires blazed simultaneously on almost every hill throughout the counties of Limerick, Clare and Tipperary. What is the object of these fires, does not appear to be generally known.
The French had made a successful incursion into the territory of the Djaffras, and had taken four hundred prisoners, three hundred head of cattle, and one thousand sheep, besides a large number of horses. A second incursion was

On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. O'Connell, accompanied by his son John, and the other travellers, entered the Court, for the purpose of handing in his plea to the indictment. It was read by the officer of the Court as follows:—
The Queen v. Daniel O'Connell, John O'Connell, Thomas Steele, T. M. Ray, John Gray, Charles F. Duffy, Rev. P. J. Tyrrell, Rev. T. Tierney, Richard Barrett.
And now the said Daniel O'Connell, in his own proper person, comes into the Court here of our Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, and having heard the said alleged indictment read, and protesting that he is not guilty of the premises charged in the said alleged indictment, or of any part thereof, for plea in abatement thereto nevertheless saith that he ought not to be compelled to answer the said alleged indictment, and that he same ought to be quashed, because he saith the said indictment heretofore, to wit on the 2nd day of November, in the year of our Lord 1843, to wit at the said Court of our Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, to wit in the parish of St. Mark, in the county of the city of Dublin aforesaid, was found a true bill by the jurors upon the evidence of divers, to wit four witnesses then and there produced before them, and then and there examined by the jurors aforesaid, and that the said witnesses then and there produced before and examined by the jurors aforesaid, were not, nor were any of them previous to their and his being so examined by the jurors aforesaid, sworn in the said Court of our said Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, according to the provisions of a certain statute passed in a session of Parliament holden in the 50th year of the reign of his late Majesty King George III., intitled an Act to regulate Proceedings of Grand Juries in Ireland upon Bills of Indictment, to wit in the parish of St. Mark in the county of the city of Dublin aforesaid, and he is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment of the said indictment, and the same may be quashed, and so forth.

Curiosity of Art.
We had the pleasure of viewing yesterday, says the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, two curious specimens of art in the imitation in woven silk of line and stipple engraving. The specimens which we saw were perfect semblances of superior engravings of the Curzon, and the "Virgin and Child," and so skillfully and naturally are the lights and shades produced in the figures, that the beholder can hardly realize the idea that the baring of the artist has not been employed upon them. These designs, we understand, were woven by machinery in Lyons, (France,) and they afford startling evidence of the astonishing degree of perfection to which machinery has been brought by the constant tax upon ingenuity and inventive genius.

Information Wanted.
The subscriber is very desirous of obtaining information from his son Wm. M. SINCLAIR, who has been for several years, in the Southern and Western States. When last heard from, which is now nearly two years, he was at Cincinnati, Ohio, bound to New Orleans, and intending to spend the winter on the river between those cities. He is 28 years of age, light complexion, brown hair, blue eyes, well set, and about 5 ft. 9 inches high. Any information respecting him would be gratefully received by his friends.

THOMAS SINCLAIR.

India.
The accounts from the East tell a lamentable tale of blood, assassination and treason. The native Governments are gradually crumbling to pieces, from sheer inanition. The Punjab has witnessed the hands of its minister and sovereign incarnadined, under circumstances marked by peculiar treachery and atrocity. The present Governor General of India has a strong penchant for extending the dominions of Britain in that magnificent portion of the globe, not checked by any nice scruples of right and wrong. The indulgence of such a feeling has had ample means of gratification during the short career of Lord Eilenborough—and another opportunity is now added to the rest.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. O'Connell, accompanied by his son John, and the other travellers, entered the Court, for the purpose of handing in his plea to the indictment. It was read by the officer of the Court as follows:—
The Queen v. Daniel O'Connell, John O'Connell, Thomas Steele, T. M. Ray, John Gray, Charles F. Duffy, Rev. P. J. Tyrrell, Rev. T. Tierney, Richard Barrett.
And now the said Daniel O'Connell, in his own proper person, comes into the Court here of our Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, and having heard the said alleged indictment read, and protesting that he is not guilty of the premises charged in the said alleged indictment, or of any part thereof, for plea in abatement thereto nevertheless saith that he ought not to be compelled to answer the said alleged indictment, and that he same ought to be quashed, because he saith the said indictment heretofore, to wit on the 2nd day of November, in the year of our Lord 1843, to wit at the said Court of our Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, to wit in the parish of St. Mark, in the county of the city of Dublin aforesaid, was found a true bill by the jurors upon the evidence of divers, to wit four witnesses then and there produced before them, and then and there examined by the jurors aforesaid, and that the said witnesses then and there produced before and examined by the jurors aforesaid, were not, nor were any of them previous to their and his being so examined by the jurors aforesaid, sworn in the said Court of our said Lady the Queen before the Queen herself, according to the provisions of a certain statute passed in a session of Parliament holden in the 50th year of the reign of his late Majesty King George III., intitled an Act to regulate Proceedings of Grand Juries in Ireland upon Bills of Indictment, to wit in the parish of St. Mark in the county of the city of Dublin aforesaid, and he is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment of the said indictment, and the same may be quashed, and so forth.

DANIEL O'CONNELL.
The Attorney General objected to the plea being received at that stage of the proceedings, and requested time until the following morning, to enable him to prepare to argue the question.
The Counsel for the traversers objected to this proposition, but
The Chief Justice intimated that the Court would accede to the application of the Attorney General.
The latest accounts from Dublin states that the State prosecution, will in all probability, be abandoned. Mr. O'Connell plea of abatement—grounded on an informality in the proceedings before the Grand Jury where the evidence was not taken on oath, as it ought to have been—has been held good by the Court and Kings Bench as respects the time when the plea was put in. The Attorney General has demurred to the plea, and the Court has appointed Monday next for arguing the demurrer between the belligerent counsel. This decision in favor of O'Connell and the rest of the traversers, is generally regarded as the "beginning of the end" of the indictment—and the Repealers are, consequently, in high spirits.

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR.
STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, bath, &c., should neglect the Head—the Hair—the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful, when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf, with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the BALM OF COLUMBIA. Ladies will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly no, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects—sweet perfume.

LORRAINE'S PILLS,
OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE
CURATIVE
OF THE
French College of Health, in Paris.
THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.
SIR—I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inability of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.
J. E. NEWHALL.
Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.
SIR—I took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.
Yours truly, J. B. LIGHT.
Nov. 20th, 1841.

[From Boston Daily Mail.]
Somebody wisely says, that a cap loaded with jewels and flowers will not cure the headache, nor gold chains prevent the consumption. Lorraine's Vegetable Pills have done both.

SIR—I have been effectually cured of a severe headache by the use of Lorraine's Pills.
SARAH NOYES.

SIR—My daughter had all the threatening symptoms of a Consumption, such as cough, pain in the side, &c., together with general debility, but has had her health restored by Lorraine's Pills.
Rev. J. KNIGHT.
New York City, Nov. 1, 1841.

Family Medicine.
SIR—I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as a family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons, as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them—they operate mildly, and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from 20m to $100 per year for medicines and physicians, since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Lame Back.
Sarah Snow was cured of a lame back in one day, when she had been unable to dress herself alone for two weeks.
Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 36 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Sick Headache.
Mrs. Bird of Providence says, that 'Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has surpassed any thing that has been brought to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

THE CONDITION.
The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood. The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invariably commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.
The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.

COUGHS, COLDS, &c.
All complaints of the chest, lungs and liver, will be cured by the Extract of Lungwort, when all else fails. This we assert without fear of the least contradiction. Besides, it does not require the false certificate of the panaceas, balsams and candies, to induce invalids to use this great lung restorative. One trial will convince the sceptical, that its virtues are far above price. To be found only, at G. W. LADD'S, corner of Smith's Block, West Market Place.

Dr. B. Jayne's FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.
THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup or Hoarse, Consumption, Chronic Phlegm, Hoarseness, Pain and Soreness of the Throat, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the LUNGS and CHEST, can add to attest to its usefulness. BRONCHITIS, a disease which is usually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, Hoarseness, Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Heemic Fever, a Spitting up of phlegm or Mucus, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels which run through every part of the Lungs. The Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.
It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three large doses will cure the CROUP, or RIVES of children, in from 15 minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and effects a speedy cure. Hence, a child who has been given up by their physicians as incurable, with CONSUMPTION, have been restored to perfect health by it.
It is this Expectorant given in the commencement of PLEURISY, INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS, or in acute RHEUMATISM, induces sufficiently large, so as to cause a little mucus for some time, going to bed and covering up warm, it will produce perspiration, and subdue these affections at once.
PRICE 31.00.

Tonic Vermifuge.
WORMS IN CHILDREN. Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as Worms. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they irritate the system, and induce every other complaint, they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. They are not only a cause of disease themselves, but by their irritation aggravate all other diseases, wandering from one part of the body to another, and inducing various large humors, and obstructing the bowels, and frequently the throat, causing convulsions, and too often death. The dearest remedy will be found in Dr. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which will very soon destroy the worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them. PRICE 50 cents.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM.
THIS is one of the most efficient, pleasant and safe compositions ever offered to the public, for the cure of the various derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT, and in the above and following diseases, it really acts like a charm, viz:
Dysentery, Diarrhea or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, Cholera Griping Pain, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Water-brash, Pain or Sickness of the Stomach, Vomiting, Spitting up of food after eating, and also where it passes through the body unchanged, Want of Appetite, Restlessness and Inability to Sleep, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Hysterics, Cramp, Nervous Tremors and Twitchings, Sea Sickness, Fainting, Melancholy and Lowness of Spirits, Fretting and Crying of Infants, and for all Bilious Affections and Nervous Disturbances.
PRICE 50 cents.

Hair Tonic.
NO EXCUSE FOR A BALD HEAD. Since the important discovery of Dr. JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC, every one may, if they choose, preserve their hair from falling off, or if already bald, may, with certainty, have their hair restored again by a faithful and persevering application of this valuable HAIR TONIC.
Please to read without prejudice the following communication, which, in addition to hundreds of others equally respectable, should remove the doubts of every reasonable person of the uniform and singular efficacy of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.
HAMILTON, Feb. 15, 1840.

Dr. B. Jayne—Dear Sir: I cannot say my hair is restored, but I can say that it appears to be in as rapid a process of restoration as could reasonably be expected. I had not finished the first bottle, before a decided change was manifest over the bald part of the head, to which it was applied. A new growth of fine glossy hair, much like that of an infant, appeared, and has continued to increase, and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently commenced upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the Tonic from the first, and from this cause I apprehend the effect is at present less than it otherwise would have been.
I began the use of the Tonic with little or no faith that it would ever be successful on my head, though I felt entire confidence in your statements of what it had done for others; and I was as much surprised as delighted when I saw the effect. You recollect the appearance of my head when in your office. I assure you the hair has been nearly, if not quite, an inch long at the times I have had it cut, on those parts which were nearly destitute of any when you saw me. It was, however, very fine, though quite thick. I am flushed with sanguine hopes of final success, in the diligent use of your Tonic, which, amidst all the hair balmings which have been advertised in the papers, I am constrained to believe is what it claims to be, and that it will make the hair grow, and no mistake, at least on some heads.

Jayne's Sanative Pills.
These Pills are an excellent mild and safe purge at all times, and are exceedingly useful in Dyspepsia and obstructions of the Liver. Persons taking them can eat and drink as usual, without fear of injury; and, what is of infinite advantage, making the use of mercurial preparations, so frequently used in derangements of the stomach and liver, unnecessary.
These Pills may be taken at all times, and are beneficial in nearly all diseases. They have long been a favorite prescription of the proprietor for all obstructions of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, Uterus, and all other organs of the body—Inflamations, Intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice and Liver Complaint. For Dyspepsia they are really an invaluable article, gradually charging the vitiated secretions of the stomach, and producing healthy action in that important organ. They are very valuable in diseases of the Skin, and for what is commonly called 'impurity of the blood'; also for Female Complaints, Costiveness, &c. &c.—and in fact, every disease where an Aperient, Alterative or Purgative medicine is required.
Four fifths of the numerous and distressing cases of DYSPEPSIA POSITIVELY CAN BE CURED by a persevering use of this valuable SANATIVE.
They are expressly prepared to be used as an Aperient, when purging is necessary, whilst using the Expectorant, and for the removal of obstructions in the Liver, which are often attendant on some of the diseases of the Breast.
Prepared only by Dr. B. Jayne, Philadelphia.

THE SICK HEADACHE.
THIS DISEASE is one from which arises more misery to the human family than is generally supposed; not being directly fatal, it is often neglected, or persons resort so much to the use of purgatives and other medicines as to impair their general health, and often induce fatal diseases. The article—Dr. Spohn's HEADACHE REMEDY, now offered seems to have overcome these difficulties. While its effects are most powerful and immediate in curing an attack or keeping it off, it is so perfectly mild and innocent as to be used for infants with the greatest effect and safety. This has now been tested by so many of the highest members of this community as to require no further proof.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES!

DR. J. D. BUZZELL'S CELEBRATED FAMILY MEDICINES
THESE Medicines are purely Vegetable, and extensively used in various parts of the United States, the British Provinces and the West Indies.
They are particularly intended for the removal of Chronic diseases, such as habitual or periodical Headache, Catarrh, Consumption of the lungs, various affections of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys, urinary vesicle, glands, &c. Dropsy, Rheumatism, Gout, and some of the preparations, viz: the Bilious Bitters, Pills, Jaundice Mixture, and anti-acid preparations. When generally used, their effect is opening obstructions, removing all morbid and offensive matter from the stomach and bowels, which he has reason to think is always their effect in all cases within the control of medicine. They operate as preventives in various epidemic diseases, such as Intermittent, Inflammatory, Bilious, and common Typhus fevers, Inflammations of the Lungs, Bowels, Pleura, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, &c.; also as preventives to some contagious diseases, such as Yellow, Scarlet and Putrid fevers, and although there are some contagious diseases which they are not capable of preventing, such as small pox, measles, hooping cough, &c., yet he, from many years' experience, has become confident, that all those who contract any of those diseases, while under the influence of these medicines, taken in such doses as to keep up and maintain a healthy action in the secretory and excretory vessels of the digestive organs, are but slightly affected, and are easily managed—whereas, on the contrary, doubtless in many cases, they would prove not only distressing, but uncontrollable and dangerous.
Vegetable Bilious Bitters.
Prepared exclusively at his Dispensary in Cape Elizabeth, near Portland, Me. These Bitters are particularly serviceable in all cases of obstruction of the stomach and bowels, and in chronic affections of the liver, and particularly serviceable where there is a loss of appetite.
Vegetable Bilious Pills.
These Pills are intended to remove all Bilious Obstructions, regulate the Secretions of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Kidneys, and to restore a healthy action in the digestive organs, by removing all unhealthy matter from the elementary canals.
Jaundice Mixture.
This Mixture will be found a speedy and safe cure for Jaundice, and of singular service in all cases where the bowels have lost their proper tone, or have become torpid, attended with obstinate obstructions. It is also an efficacious remedy for bile, and for which the directions accompanying the medicine are to be strictly observed.
Hemorrhoidal, or Pile Powder.
This medicine may be relied upon to give immediate relief; and their use persevered in, will effect a certain cure.
Compound Strengthening Plaster.
A local weakness, or a pain in the chest, stomach, side, or back, will, in most cases, be removed by the application of this plaster to the part affected.
Ointment for the Cure of Cutaneous Eruptions.
A few sparing applications of this ointment, morning and evening, will be found a safe and efficacious remedy in all cutaneous eruptions. It is a remedy for eruptions of the face, with which children are so often afflicted, and even in cases of scald head, a loathsome affection of the head, in which state it is covered with a contagious humor, and is a safe application, effecting a cure. It will generally cure that troublesome and truly perplexing humor, called by many the B. B. or Jackson's Itch; observing in all cases, to take the ANTHERIPTIC and COOLING POWDER, according to its accompanying directions.
Cough Mixture.
A remedy for all coughs proceeding from colds, asthma, chronic catarrh, consumption, dyspepsia, and inflammation of the lungs or pharynx. It is also found very useful in ameliorating the violence of hooping cough.
For a more full and particular description of diseases, and the medicine to be applied, I beg leave to refer you to my Circular, in pamphlet form, which may be found wherever the medicines are for sale, and to the remarks accompanying them.

PATENT MILL WHEELS.
THE Subscriber having for a long time given his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the invention of two kinds of Wheels for which he has received Letters Patent from the Government of the United States.
These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels now in general use.
A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drummond, James B. Fiske, Amos Davis and Leonard March, Esqrs., Messrs. Fiske & Norcross, Foster & Gilman, S. P. & H. Strickland, W. T. & H. Peirce & Co. Bangor; Hon. J. S. Little, Portland; Hon.
